Dress-Ups

1. who/which
   adjective clause; “who” or “which” in the middle of a sentence

   Examples:

   - The yellow-bellied sapsucker, which is native to Canada and the northern United States, destroys young trees by sucking sap from the branches.
   - The lion, who felt he would never be able to disentangle himself from the hunter’s net, was most grateful for the appearance of the little mouse.
   - Many people are not aware of Tiki Tom, who lived alone for years on a deserted island.

2. “ly” word (adverb)

   Examples:

   - The fox casually mentioned how pleased he would be to hear the crow sing.

3. because (adverb clause)

   Examples:

   - The hare was delighted because he knew it would be an easy race.

4. strong verb (use Thesaurus, Banned Words List, Strong Verb List, etc.)

   Examples:

   - He went over the colossal mountain.
     He trekked over the colossal mountain.
     The bird sang an exquisite song.
     The bird warbled an exquisite song.

   Beware Passive Verbs!

   - I was taught by Mrs. Quickwit.
     Mrs. Quickwit taught me.
     The child was read to by her mother.
     The mother read to her child.

   - The car was designed by Nigel Sharp, a brilliant engineer.
     Nigel Sharp, a brilliant engineer, designed the car.

5. quality adjective (use Thesaurus, Banned Words List, Quality Adjectives List, etc.)

   Examples:

   - The ugly horseman scared Ichabod Crane.
   - The hideous horseman terrorized timid Ichabod Crane.

6. when, while, where, as, since, if, although (adverb clause, in middle of a sentence - www.asia)

   Examples:

   - The hare dozed peacefully while the tortoise plodded persistently.
   - The cheese dropped to the ground when the crow began to sing.
   - The lion was humbled as he beheld his miniature rescuer at work.