

Critical Race Theory: What It Is and How to Fight It

To understand Critical Race Theory, we must understand Marxism.

1. The Marxist Left based its political program on the theory of _____ conflict.
2. Marxists believed that the primary characteristic of industrialized societies was the imbalance of power between c _____ and w _____
3. The solution to the imbalance is:
 - revolution
 - the pursuit of excellence
 - the free market

The victimized and oppressed workers must:

- ✓ Gain consciousness of their plight (their status as victims)
- ✓ Seize the means of production
- ✓ Overthrow the capitalist class
- ✓ Usher in a new socialist society

(In essence, the idea was to tear down those on top and put themselves up there instead.)

4. During the 20th Century, socialist governments racked up a body count of how many of their own people? _____ million

Marxism produced unprecedented atrocities. Marxists had to change their tactics.

5. America was different than Europe. Why did Marxism not work well in America? _____

6. What is the American Dream? The idea that people can transcend their origins through:

7. Marxist scholars adapted their class-based revolutionary theory. They substituted _____ for class.
8. Using a race-based ideology, the Marxists attempted to spark a revolution in the 1960s (under leadership of Malcom X), but they lost out to what? _____
9. In the 1960s, what did the civil rights movement seek?
 - revolution and the overthrow of the government, replacing it with equity
 - fulfillment of the American promise of freedom and equality under the law for all

What It Is

10. Critical Race Theory is:
 - the hope of the future
 - identity-based/race-based Marxism
 - an ideology based on the belief that all people should be considered equal in value and worth
11. Equity and Equality are the same thing. True False
12. Equity is: [PICK TWO]
 - the principle claimed in the Declaration of Independence that all men are created equal in worth and value
 - the principle that a person's value depends on race, and victimized races are more valuable than others
 - based on redistributing wealth on the basis of race
 - based on the opportunity to pursue your American dreams

13. Equality is: [PICK TWO]

- the principle claimed in the Declaration of Independence that all men are created equal in worth and value
- the principle that a person's value depends on race, and victimized races are more valuable than others
- based on redistributing wealth on the basis of race
- based on the opportunity to pursue your American dreams

14. According to critical race theory, to be against racism, a person must also be:

- against socialism
- against capitalism
- against tyranny

How It Works

15. According to critical Race theory, white people are socialized into:

- oppressor roles
- victim roles

16. The Treasury Department of the federal government teaches employees that:

- racism is a terrible problem that we can overcome with an attitude of love and mutual respect
- virtually all white people contribute to racism whether they know it or not

❖ What are some things students, teachers, and employees are forced to do as part of 'critical race training' in their schools and workplaces?

Futile Resistance

There are four reasons why 'critical race theory is not being effectively challenged:

17. 1 – Too many Americans have developed _____

18. Who is afraid of voicing their political beliefs?

- Leftists
- Marxists
- Conservatives
- Democrats

19. 2 – Critical Race theorists have constructed their argument like a _____
[If you disagree with critical race theory, they use that as evidence that proves them right. Your disagreement is evidence that proves you are a white supremacist.]

20. 3 – Americans fail to separate the premise of critical race theory from its _____

21. What is the premise of critical race theory? _____

22. What is the conclusion of critical race theory? _____

23. 4 – Opponents refute critical race theory on a theoretical level, but these opponents need to force critical race advocates to defend the _____ consequences of the ideas in the realm of politics.

Political Engagement

24. How does the First Amendment legally protect us from critical race theory?

25. How does the Fourteenth Amendment legally protect us from critical race theory?

26. How does the Civil Rights Act of 1964 legally protect us from critical race theory?

See if you can define these critical race concepts based on what the words in each term means:

27. What is Race Essentialism? _____

28. What is Collective Guilt? _____

29. What is Neo-Segregation? _____

30. Why should we be focusing on excellence more than diversity?

31. How is courage part of this struggle?

32. What do YOU think? Is it helpful for culture to systematically divide people into “oppressor class” and “oppressed class”? Or is this just a new way to foster oppression?

Please Note: Times have changed only slightly.

The goal to destroy capitalism and replace it with Marxist socialism continues with a twist.

Workers has been replaced with ‘Races.’

That is the only difference.

The victimized and oppressed ~~workers~~ races must:

- ✓ Gain consciousness of their plight (their status as victims)
- ✓ Seize the means of production
- ✓ Overthrow the capitalist class
- ✓ Usher in a new socialist society

(In essence, the idea was to tear down those on top and put themselves up there instead.)

Never forget that the enemy (satan) promotes socialism because it produces complete control over people and demands that citizens put The State in God's place. This is more than a political battle – it is a spiritual battle.
