

The Great World War II Myth

Ch 20 - The Great World War II Myth

1. The nine bullet points summarize the generally held beliefs about World War II. According to these beliefs, the most evil dangerous person in history was _____
2. According to this narrative, the lesson of WWII is that America must _____
3. What will happen if America does not intervene around the world? _____

Ch 21 - A Secret Agreement

4. Date of Pearl Harbor? _____
5. How many battleships sunk? _____
6. How many American soldiers were killed? _____
7. What battleship can you see beneath the surface of the water at the memorial in Hawaii?

8. FDR said this attack was un_____. _____.
9. What leaders met to form the Atlantic Charter? _____
10. What was the Atlantic Charter? _____
11. Evidence is overwhelming that FDR had made an illegal secret agreement to _____
12. How was this agreement unconstitutional? _____
13. What had FDR promised the American people in the 1940 campaign? _____
14. On September 11, 1939, FDR wrote to Churchill suggesting they work together through a _____
_____. (NOTE: Germany invaded Poland and began WWII on September 1st, just ten days earlier.)
15. What did Churchill suggest would be possible if he were to become Prime Minister of England? _____
16. What percentage of the world did Britain control at this point? _____%

Ch 22 - Why Did the Japanese Attack?

17. Modern war is mostly about production which is the

18. Japan had less than _____% of the world's manufacturing capability.
19. America had _____% of the world's manufacturing capability.
20. America's war potential was at least _____% greater than that of Germany.
21. How well was Germany actually suited to wage war in terms of natural resources? _____
22. Even though the navy of Japan was larger than the American fleet, why was the U.S. still at an advantage?

23. For every American soldier, there were _____ of supplies.
24. For every Japanese soldier, there were _____ of supplies.
25. What was Admiral Yakamoto's opinion about attacking the United States? _____

26. At what battle was the Japanese advance stopped? _____
27. At what battle were the Japanese decimated, never to recover? _____
28. In 1941, the year of the Pearl Harbor attack, how did the American production rate stack up against other nations? _____
29. Who was the chief supplier of resources for the Japanese industrial economy? _____
30. Does it seem reasonable that the Japanese would attack the nation they most rely on for their resources? _____

Ch 23 - Pearl Harbor – FDR’s Deceit

31. Lt. Commander McCollum was in charge of _____
32. What did McCollum believe about US involvement in the war? _____
33. What percentage of Americans opposed involvement in the war? _____ %
34. What did McCollum think would be a good way to change the minds of Americans about involvement in the war? _____
35. What did McCollum hope to accomplish by his eight step plan? _____
36. Why is there no ironclad evidence that FDR was intentionally following McCollum’s plan?

37. When was the recording machine wired to record all FDR’s conversations disconnected?

38. What did FDR do in April of 1940? _____
39. What did FDR do July 25, 1940? _____
40. What did FDR do September 26, 1940? _____
41. What does Admiral Richardson ask FDR to do in October 1940? _____
42. By the end of October 1940, how serious was the threat of Germany invading Britain? _____
43. The Dutch government gives permission to FDR to base U.S. warships in _____
44. What do the Dutch do to Japan under pressure from FDR? _____
45. What puts the final nail in the coffin of the Neutrality Act? _____
46. By the end of December, trade restrictions had halted _____
47. What happens January 1, 1941? _____
48. What does Navy Secretary Frank Knox think about having the Pacific fleet at Pearl Harbor? _____
49. What does FDR finally do in reaction to Admiral Richardson’s protests? _____
50. Who replaces Admiral Richardson? _____
51. What does FDR do March 15, 1941? _____
52. Is the American public informed about this? _____
53. What warning does Kimmel give to FDR in May of 1941? _____
54. When FDR moves some warships away from Pearl Harbor in May 1941, what impact does this have on the remaining fleet at Pearl? _____

55. As Hitler invades Russia June 22, 1941, what will happen if Stalin cannot get help from FDR?

56. Two days later, FDR pledges aid to _____
57. On July 19th the Director of War Plans warns FDR that antagonizing the Japanese further will

58. A week later what does FDR do to further antagonize Japan? _____
59. In August of 1941 FDR illegally gives permission to create the Fighting Tigers for what purpose?

60. August 9-12, FDR tells Churchill that _____
61. On Sept 11, 1941, what reason did FDR give for his "shoot on sight" order? _____
62. What had the Greer been doing prior to being attacked? _____
63. The message intercepted on October 9, 1941 contained intel that what was going to happen?

64. Is Admiral Kimmel, Commander of the Pacific fleet at Pearl Harbor told about this message? _____
65. In a war council meeting on November 25th, Secretary of War Stimson thinks that U.S. forces are likely to be attacked when? _____
66. What is FDR's concern at this meeting? _____
67. After meeting with FDR November 26th, what do Stark and Marshall order Kimmel to do? _____
68. How does this impact Pearl Harbor defenses against air attack? _____
69. How is the November 26th message sent to Kimmel from Stark and Marshall incomplete?

70. What secret war plan does The Chicago Tribune reveal on December 4th? _____
71. Is Kimmel told about General Hap Arnold's warning on December 6, 1941? _____
72. After reading an intercepted Japanese message indicating "This means war," does FDR tell Kimmel about it? _____
73. After all of this, does it seem as though the Pearl Harbor attack on December 7th was much of a surprise to FDR? _____
74. Does it seem as though it would have been a surprise to Admiral Kimmel? _____
75. Was Admiral Kimmel given the necessary information to do a good job? _____
76. Did Admiral Kimmel follow the president's orders? _____
77. What happened to Admiral Kimmel ten days after the attack? _____
78. When would most people probably say that FDR cut off Japan's supplies? _____
79. What was the significance of the fact that snow fell in Russia September 12, 1941?

80. Why Japan? Why was Japan the enemy singled out? _____

Ch 25 – "Caught With Their Pants Down"

81. What warning had Kimmel given FDR on June 9, 1941? _____
82. How did FDR respond to Kimmel's request? _____

83. The Japanese were able to inflict so much damage because:

O Kimmel did not have the base in a state of readiness

O FDR had left Kimmel with too few planes and guns to protect the fleet

84. In the opinion of this author, what did the USG do that was the key to pinning the blame for Pearl Harbor on Kimmel? _____

85. What did Congress declare in 1999? _____

86. How did America feel about Kimmel when he died in 1968? _____

Ch 26 – Planes Parked Too Close Together

87. Why did Kimmel have the planes parked close together? This indicates he was expecting what kind of attack?

Ch 27 – The Prokofiev Seamount

88. Why did Kimmel send his own fleet to the Prokofiev Seamount? _____

89. What order was given to Kimmel from officers at the White House? _____

90. Soon after, when Kimmel was ordered to send ships away from Hawaii, what sort of warships were left at Pearl Harbor? _____

91. Was Kimmel's gut instinct right regarding where the Japanese would launch their attack from? _____

Ch 28 – The Necessary Sacrifice?

92. When were reporters in Washington DC told about the coming attack? _____

93. Why didn't Kimmel hear what the reporters were told? _____

❖ What might have been the result if Kimmel had been allowed to do his job and if he had been told what reporters and high ranking officials knew? _____

94. How did Admiral Halsey refer to Kimmel and Short in 1953? _____

95. What is the "Necessary Sacrifice" explanation? _____

96. According to this author, were we actually needed to help defeat Germany at the point we entered the war? _____

97. Why is it so difficult for statist-oriented people to face the truth about what FDR did?

98. About two months after Pearl Harbor, FDR signed Executive Order 9066. What was this all about?

99. What term did FDR use for the relocation camps? _____

1. What reason did the Supreme Court give for upholding this executive order? _____

Ch 29 – You've Seen the Photos

2. What impact did the photos & films have on the American people? _____

3. The explosion of the Arizona was how long after the attack began? _____

4. How can one explain the fact that a photographer with a movie camera loaded with color film was poised and ready to go as the Arizona was blowing up? _____