

Name _____

The Case Against Socialism

- By Senator Rand Paul. Read the handout Chapters 21, 22, 25, & 26 – found on Mrs.MuellersWorld. com - and do this worksheet!!!

Chapter 21 – The Nazis Hated Capitalism

1. Nazi stands for the official party name, which is the _____
2. Why do many people believe that Nazis were capitalists and not socialists?
3. How did it benefit the Soviets for people to believe that Nazis were right wing Capitalists instead of left-wing Socialists?

Chapter 22 – The Nazis Didn't Believe in Private Property

4. Mainstream thought ignored the link between Hitler's Holocaust horrors and socialism.      True      False
5. Mainstream thought ignored the link between Stalin's gulag horrors and socialism.      True      False
6. How did German National Socialists handle private property as compared with the Soviets?
7. What does it mean that Nazis had socialism with the "outward appearance of capitalism" (p 152)?
8. What were some ways that Nazis controlled private property?
9. Nazis used the word "Jewish" as a synonym for "_____."
10. Under Nazism, a businessman functioned primarily as a representative of the _____, and only secondarily for his own sake.
11. How are the regulation loving Democrats (& Socialists) of today similar to the Nazis?

Chapter 25 – Socialism Promises Equality and Leads to Tyranny

12. What did Chairman Mao of China promise when he took power?
13. Mao, Stalin, and Hitler all came to power promising:      tyranny      equality
14. What is "government enforced equality"?
15. How is "government enforced equality" damaging?

16. How does socialism destroy incentives?

17. The government big enough to give you everything you _____ is a government strong enough to _____ away everything that you have. (**This old saying is a good one to remember!**)

18. Mao said that “political power grows out of the _____.”

19. What groups did Chairman Mao pit against each other in a class struggle in China?

20. Mao – like Marx – believed socialism was a _____ destiny.

21. How is socialism linked to Darwinism (Charles Darwin’s evolutionary ideas of survival of the fittest)?

22. What happened to the “bourgeoisie” land owners after Mao took over China and created the People’s Republic of China?

23. What was the result of “the Great Leap Forward” in China?

24. What did “communist enforcers” do to people?

25. What is the best estimate of deaths in China as a result of the government’s socialist policies? _____

Chapter 26 – All Aspects of Culture Eventually Become Targets for the Planners

26. After the disaster of the Great Leap Forward in China, what new program did Mao launch in 1966 to distract the people?

27. What/who did Mao blame for the failure of the Great Leap Forward?

28. What was the goal of the new Cultural Revolution?

29. What was the Red Guard?

30. What was the book of Mao’s Quotations called?

31. What was the expectation regarding Mao’s book for Chinese citizens?

32. During the Cultural Revolution, what did Mao do to anything in the culture that was perceived to be “traditional” and rooted in the “old ways”?

33. What were the “four olds”?
34. Orders came down that all Chinese families must send one child to what kind of camps in the countryside?
 gymnastic camp                       engineering camps                       reeducation camps
35. What were people with education and knowledge called?
 people of wisdom                       stinking ninth class                       honorable citizens
36. What order was instituted in China in 1974?
- ❖ How would your family react to a socialist-style order like that? Would you try to preserve your family?
37. What work did the children of intellectuals have to do during the Cultural Revolution (p 181-182)?
38. What happened to Bibles during the “Destroy the Four Olds Campaign” (p. 186)?
39. What happened to people’s books, photos, and artwork during the “Destroy the Four Olds Campaign” of the Cultural Revolution?
40. What did people have to do when forced on stages in front of the village wearing dunce caps (p. 187) (This is called a “struggle session”)?
41. How do today’s socialists explain the socialism of Mao’s China, Stalin’s Soviet Union (Russia), and Hitler’s Germany?
42. What happened to Fang Zhongmou?
43. What happened to Bian Zhongyun?
44. What happened to the three ping pong players who competed for China in the 1970s?

